

Application for the Educational Stipend

Overview:

The UHN-SHS International Critical Care Fellowship provides fellows with a one-time reimbursement of up to $1000 per contract year to pursue academic and educational opportunities. This stipend can be used for the following purposes:

- Dissemination of academic work via presentation of abstracts, posters, and oral presentations at conferences
- Attendance of conferences for educational purposes
- Attendance of educational symposia, workshops, or individual skills courses

This stipend cannot be used for the following purposes:

- Tuition for degree or certification programs
- Equipment (e.g. laptops, ultrasound probes, software apps, etc.)

To obtain access to this stipend, please submit this application form for advanced approval no less than 4 weeks in advance of the event to Susan Tarnawski (susan.tarnawski@uhn.ca) and Kasia Briegmann-Samson (kasia.briegmann-samson@uhn.ca). You will also need to submit proof of attendance as well as your bank or credit card statement and applicable receipts as proof of payment following the event. If you are claiming more than one expense adding up to the $1000 maximum, include an itemized list of each expense with relevant documentation.
